What to do when someone is about to leave this world

1. When a person is about to die, make him/her lie down flat on there back. Place there feet towards the Qiblah and raise there head so that his/her face could be towards the Qiblah. If moving them causes difficulty then leave him/her in any convenient position. Sit near them and recite the Kalimah aloud so that by listening to you he/she will also commence reading. Do not order him/her to read the Kalimah because this is a very difficult time and we do not know what he/she will utter. It is desirable that a person in the state of Janabat (impurity) leaves the room.
